Ministry Shall Not Destroy My Marriage

There is a spiritual epidemic sweeping through the body of Christ. Divorce rates and separation are at an all time high in the church arena, and very few are speaking out about it. This book will bring insight and awareness to satan's tactics against marriage and expose and annihilate his plans while restoring God's original intent for successful and harmonious marriages and ministries.

This book will help those who are in ministry, from ministers/pastors to musicians and laymen, to properly handle both ministry and marriage. Bishop and Apostle Hunter will encourage and motivate those who are married to know that they too can have a healthy balance while at the same time providing instruction for those who are contemplating marriage. Marriage is a gift to cherish and yours shall not be destroyed by ministry.
